Are we sure it is correct to refer to him as a "volunteer." And not an employee. Can you be an unpaid employee of the State? As a SAAG doesn't that make one an employee? I find it strange to call someone who is working under our supervision with the title of SAAG and who is getting paid (by a third party) the same as he would if he were working for DOJ as a regular AAG -a volunteer. Is that essential? Are we letting the OAJA union know about this arrangement? Can there be a short appointment letter with this agreement attached?

Fred: As we discussed this morning, attached is a draft NYU Fellow Appointment agreement. I used a recent SAAG appointment agreement as a starting template for this. This may be more thorough and legalistic than you were thinking we might use. I wanted to start with the more thorough version, that looks more like an agreement. Let me know if you want to pare this down to bare essentials.

If we go with this version, I have embedded comments with questions about sections that I'm not sure are needed, at least perhaps not in this detail (like the entire HIPAA agreement attached as an exhibit).

Let me know what you think.
