Re: Appointment of Steve Novick as Special Assistant Attorney General

Dear Senator Winters:

You asked about the Attorney General's authority to appoint Steve Novick as a Special Assistant Attorney General through a fellowship with the State Energy & Environmental Impact Center at New York University School of Law (Center). With your permission, we asked the Department of Justice (DOJ) for more details about Mr. Novick's appointment, and we received two documents: an Employee Secondment Agreement between the Oregon Department of Justice and the State Energy & Environmental Impact Center at NYU School of Law (Secondment Agreement) and an employment offer letter from the Center to Mr. Novick, both of which are attached. Based on these documents, we conclude that some aspects of Mr. Novick's appointment conflict with the Attorney General's authority to appoint assistants under ORS 180.140.

ORS 180.140 (1) provides:

The Attorney General shall appoint the other assistants the Attorney General deems necessary to transact the business of the office, each to serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General and perform such duties as the Attorney General may designate and for whose acts the Attorney General shall be responsible. Each assistant shall have full authority under the direction of the Attorney General to perform any duty required by law to be performed by the Attorney General.

Thus, the Attorney General has broad authority to appoint assistant attorneys. ORS 180.140 (4) provides some limitations on that authority:

Each assistant shall receive the salary fixed by the Attorney General, payable as other state salaries are paid. Each assistant so appointed shall devote the full time of the assistant to the business of the state, unless employment on a part-time basis is otherwise fixed by the Attorney General.

The documents provided by the DOJ provide for Mr. Novick to receive his salary from the Center.¹ Thus, Mr. Novick is not receiving a salary fixed by the Attorney General, and his salary is not paid as other state salaries are paid. This arrangement does not comply with ORS 180.140 (4).

In addition, while the documents provided by the DOJ state that during Mr. Novick's employment he will be "under the direction and control of, and owe a duty of loyalty to, the DOJ,"² the documents also require the DOJ and Mr. Novick to report to and collaborate with the Center.³ Although these duties may be minimal, they arguably prevent Mr. Novick from "devot[ing] the full time of the assistant to the business of the state" as required by ORS 180.140 (4).

We hope this is helpful.

The opinions written by the Legislative Counsel and the staff of the Legislative Counsel's office are prepared solely for the purpose of assisting members of the Legislative Assembly in the development and consideration of legislative matters. In performing their duties, the Legislative Counsel and the members of the staff of the Legislative Counsel's office have no authority to provide legal advice to any other person, group or entity. For this reason, this opinion should not be considered or used as legal advice by any person other than legislators in the conduct of legislative business. Public bodies and their officers and employees should seek and rely upon the advice and opinion of the Attorney General, district attorney, county counsel, city attorney or other retained counsel. Constituents and other private persons and entities should seek and rely upon the advice and opinion of private counsel.

Very truly yours,
