Dear XXXXX

The Compact Review Committee (CRC) recently reviewed a report dated December 6, 2021 that your conduct failed to meet the commitments you agreed to in the Yale Community Compact.

The CRC has determined that your conduct posed a risk to the health and safety of yourself or other community members. Therefore, the CRC is issuing the following response. Please note there is no appeal from a CRC decision.

Administrative Warning

You are put on notice that your behavior violated the Yale Community Compact. Should you continue to engage in behavior that violates the Yale Community Compact, you will be placed on Public Health Warning and may face more serious outcomes, including the removal of permission to be on campus.

 Please note that it is your responsibility to wear an appropriate face covering in shared indoor spaces on campus and in the residential colleges. This is not optional. Do not enter or use shared spaces on campus without an appropriate face covering. More guidance is available at https://ehs.yale.edu/mask-guidance.

Our community currently faces many challenges, and we are each called on to do our part to limit the spread of COVID-19 and prioritize our own and others' health and safety. Everyone should be familiar with the expectations of the Yale Community Compact and other Yale policies. If you have any questions about the CRC process, please write to

The CRC thanks you for your attention to this matter. We wish you well as we all learn to care for one another in community.

Sincerely,

Anita Sharif-Hyder, Associate Secretary, University-Wide Committee on Sexual Misconduct

Matthew Makomenaw, Assistant Dean of Yale College and Director of the Native American Cultural Center

George Levesque, Associate Dean of Yale College, Dean of Academic Programs

CC: Melanie Boyd, Dean of Student Affairs, Yale College Covid-19 Health and Safety Leader
