SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION
22 CRS 336318

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA )

v. )

OCTAVIS WILSON, )

DEFENDANT. )

MOTION TO REVOKE BOND AND SET NEW CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

NOW COMES the State of North Carolina, by and through the undersigned Assistant District Attorney, and moves the Court pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 534(f) and 539(a) to revoke the defendant's bond and set new conditions of pretrial release in the above-captioned case. In support of this motion, the State shows unto the Court the following:

1. In this case, the defendant is charged with one count of first degree kidnapping, one count of second degree rape, one count of second degree sex offense, one count of assault on a female, and one count of sexual battery.

2. These offenses stem from an incident that occurred on 11/05/2022. The defendant approached the victim, a complete stranger, after she got off the bus at Glenwood Drive and Tuckaseegee Road. The defendant began following her and offered her $20 in exchange for sex. After the victim refused, the defendant began grabbing at the victim. After the victim pushed the defendant away from her, the Defendant began striking the victim in the face. The defendant proceeded to grab the victim by the hair and pulled her into a nearby port-a-john where he raped her. Surveillance footage from a nearby business captured this incident.

3. The defendant was arrested nearby and was later interviewed by law enforcement. During his interview, the defendant acknowledged approaching the victim, striking her in the head, and pulling her into the port-a-john. The defendant told detectives that once inside, the victim "offered" to have sex with him, and the defendant admitted to having vaginal intercourse with her.

4. After the defendant was arrested for these charges on 11/06/2022, he was brought before a magistrate, who set the defendant's bond at $2 million secured.

5. On 11/08/2022, the defendant had his first appearance before a Mecklenburg County District Court judge.

6. After the defendant complained that his bond was too high and told the judge presiding in courtroom 1150 that he wouldn't "mess up no more," the judge told the defendant, "We're going to help you out with that, ok?" The judge then reduced the defendant's bond to $50,000 secured.

7. Pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 15A-534(c), when determining which conditions of pretrial release to impose, a judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account several factors, including the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the weight of the evidence against the defendant, and the defendant's history of failing to appear in court.

8. The decision of the District Court judge to reduce the defendant's bond from $2 million secured to $50,000 secured – a 97.5% reduction – is wholly inadequate to ensure the safety of the community and the defendant's appearance in court.

9. At the time the defendant was charged with the offenses in 22 CRS 336318, he was already on pretrial release for separate charges of assault with a deadly weapon and attempted first degree rape (21 CRS 229041 – 42). The offenses occurred on 09/13/2021 and bear a striking resemblance to the defendant's latest alleged conduct, in that both offenses took place in the vicinity of Tuckaseegee Road in Charlotte, both victims were strangers to the defendant, and in both cases the defendant followed his victims and offered them money for sex before assaulting them.

10. In 21 CRS 229041 – 42, the defendant approached the victim as she was walking on Tuckaseegee Road, began following her, and offered her $40 in exchange for sex. The victim refused, and the defendant continued making lewd comments toward her. The defendant ultimately produced a pocketknife and threatened the victim with it. After the victim called 911, the defendant was apprehended nearby and had a pocketknife in his possession. In an interview with law enforcement, the defendant acknowledged making lewd comments to the victim.

11. The defendant was given a $2,500 secured bond for the charge of assault with a deadly weapon and a $20,000 secured bond for the charge of attempted first degree rape. The defendant posted bond on these charges and was released from custody on 09/20/2021.

12. Furthermore, after the defendant posted bond in 21 CRS 229041 – 42, he subsequently missed a court date in Superior Court on 08/22/2022 and an order for his arrest was issued. The defendant went back into custody for these offenses on 09/16/2022 and his bond for the charge of attempted first degree rape was reduced from $20,000 secured to $7,500 secured. The defendant posted bond and was again released from custody on 10/05/2022.

13. In short, the defendant had been out of custody for exactly one month following his arrest for missing court on a charge of attempted rape when he was charged with raping another woman. These offenses occurred in the same area of Charlotte, share a similar fact pattern, and in both cases, the defendant admitted contact with his victims.

14. Based on the foregoing, this court should conclude that the conditions of pretrial release imposed in this case – that is, a $50,000 secured bond – are insufficient to ensure the ensure the safety of the community and the defendant's appearance in court and should set new conditions of release.

15. The State requests that this Motion be calendared for a hearing as soon as possible at the next available criminal administrative session of Superior Court.

Respectfully submitted, this the 15th day of November 2022.

NOTICE OF RETURN OF BILL OF INDICTMENT

G.S. 15A-630, 15A-941(d)

To The Defendant Named Above:

Take notice that the grand jury of the county named above has returned the attached True Bill(s) of Indictment charging you with the offense(s) specified.

You are informed that there are important time limitations on your right to discovery of the evidence against you. (See G.S. 15A-902, which is printed on the reverse.)

This Notice is issued upon the order of the presiding judge.

You will be arraigned on the charges contained in this Indictment only if you file a written request for arraignment with the Clerk of Superior Court not later than twenty-one (21) days after the Indictment is served on you. If you do not file a written request for arraignment within that time, the court will enter a not guilty plea on your behalf.

You must appear in Superior Court at the date, time and place shown below to answer the charges in this Indictment.

NOTE: If an earlier court date is set in a release order, you must appear at that time also.

G.S. 15A-902 Discovery Procedure

- "(a) A party seeking discovery under this Article must, before filing any motion before a judge, request in writing that the other party comply voluntarily with the discovery request. A written request is not required if the parties agree in writing to voluntarily comply with the provisions of Article 48 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. Upon receiving a negative or unsatisfactory response, or upon the passage of seven days following the receipt of the request without response, the party requesting discovery may file a motion for discovery under the provisions of this Article concerning any matter as to which voluntary discovery was not made pursuant to request.
- (b) To the extent that discovery authorized in this Article is voluntarily made in response to a request or written agreement, the discovery is deemed to have been made under an order of the court for the purposes of this Article.
- (c) A motion for discovery under this Article must be heard before a superior court judge.
- (d) If a defendant is represented by counsel, the defendant may as a matter of right request voluntary discovery from the State under subsection (a) of this section not later than the tenth working day after either the probable-cause hearing or the date the defendant waives the hearing. If a defendant is not represented by counsel, or is indicted or consents to the filing of a bill of information before the defendant has been afforded or waived a probable-cause hearing, the defendant may as a matter of right request voluntary discovery from the State under subsection (a) of this section not later than the tenth working day after the later of:
- (1) The defendant's consent to be tried upon a bill of information, or the service of notice upon the defendant that a true bill of indictment has been found by the grand jury, or
  - (2) The appointment of counsel.
- For the purposes of this subsection a defendant is represented by counsel only if counsel was retained by or appointed for the defendant prior to or during a probable-cause hearing or prior to execution by the defendant of a waiver of a probable-cause hearing.
- (e) The State may as a matter of right request voluntary discovery from the defendant, when authorized under this Article, at any time not later than the tenth working day after disclosure by the State with respect to the category of discovery in question.
- (f) A motion for discovery made at any time prior to trial may be entertained if the parties so stipulate or if the judge for good cause shown determines that the motion should be allowed in whole or in part."

G.S. 15A-941(d) Arraignment Before Judge Only Upon Written Request

- "(d) A defendant will be arraigned in accordance with this section only if the defendant files a written request with the clerk of superior court for an arraignment not later than 21 days after service of the bill of indictment. If a bill of indictment is not required to be served pursuant to G.S. 15A-630, then the written request for arraignment must be filed not later than 21 days from the date of the return of the indictment as a true bill. Upon the return of the indictment as a true bill, the court must immediately cause notice of the 21-day time limit within which the defendant may request an arraignment to be mailed or otherwise given to the defendant and to the defendant's counsel of record, if any. If the defendant does not file a written request for arraignment, then the court shall enter a not guilty plea on behalf of the defendant."

NARRATIVE

On November 5, 2022, Metro Officers responded to Glenwood Dr in reference to a rape call for service. The victim reported that she was kidnapped and raped by an unknown suspect in a port-a-john located in the 3800 Block of Glenwood Drive.

The 29-year-old victim agreed to the collection of a sexual assault kit and was transported to the hospital ER.

Detectives responded and spoke with the victim. The victim reported that at approximately 1130pm, she got off the #8 bus at Glenwood Drive and Tuckaseegee Rd. She began walking down Glenwood Drive. She reported that after a few minutes of walking, she noticed a black male wearing a red hoodie following her. He soon approached her and asked her if she wanted to make some money and offered her $20.00 for sex. The victim told him no, she had a boyfriend, and that she didnt do that kind of thing. She kept walking and he continued to follow her.

As she approached the 3800 block of Glenwood, the suspect began touching her butt and grabbing at her. She stopped and pushed him away. As she did so, the suspect grabbed her and began hitting her in the face and head several times. He grabbed her by the hair and was pulling her toward the parking lot of 3801 Glenwood drive. The suspect told the victim that he would not stop hitting her unless she gave him what he wanted.

The suspect pulled her over to a port-a-john located in the parking lot of the and forced her inside. The victim reported that once inside the port-a-john, she realized that her forehead was bleeding profusely. She asked him if she could wipe her face. He gave her some tissue and she was able to wipe the blood off her face.

The suspect bent her over in front of him and pulled her pants down to her knees. He then attempted to penetrate her anus with his penis, but was unable to, so he moved to her vagina. The victim reported that he continued to have vaginal sex with her for approximately 5 minutes and then announced, "I'm Done". He allowed her to pull her pants back up, and he exited the port-a-john.

The victim reported that he closed the door and did not let her out at first, but then began to walk away.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY ARREST PROCESSING CENTER*ARREST SHEET

As she exited the port-a-john, she observed him walk over and pick her phone up from the street where she dropped it while he was beating her earlier. He asked her if she wanted it back, but then changed his mind, telling her that he knew that she would call someone and tell on him if he gave it back. He then took her phone and walked away. She last saw him walking back towards Tuckaseegee on Glennwood.

The incident location did have surveillance footage of the incident. The business owner responded to the scene and was able to locate the incident. The footage found shows the victim walking and the suspect following close behind her. He reaches out and begins to touch her and she pushes him away. He then begins to hit her in the face and head several times, puts her in a bear type hug and forces her to the port-a-john. Approximately 8 minutes later, he exits the port-a-john and walks toward the sidewalk, picks up something in the road and waits for the victim to exit the port-a-john. There was a brief interaction and they both walk away in opposite directions.

The victim suffered a black left eye, a deep laceration on her left eyebrow and complained of pain in back, top of her head and right shoulder.

Several smears of blood and a blood-soaked tissue were located inside the port-a-john.

A bolo will be sent out with a photo and description of the suspect pulled from the footage obtained from a local store located at the corner of Glenwood and Tuckaseegee. The photo was also released to the media.

After the photo was shown on the news, Detectives received a call from the victim. She positively identified the person in the photo as the suspect that assaulted her.

Officers located a suspect matching that description in the 3200 block of Tuckaseegee Road. He was wearing the same clothes as described by the victim during the incident. He was arrested and transported to the LEC to be interviewed.

The suspect identified as Octavis Wayne Deandre Wilson 03/04/1993 waived his rights and agreed to speak with detectives. During his interview, Mr. Wilson admitted that he approached the victim on the night of the incident, hit her causing the gash on her head, grabbing her, pulling her to the port-a-john and forcing her inside. He reported that once inside, he just wanted to talk and help her with her bleeding eye, but that she offered to have sex with him. Mr. Wilson admitted that he tried to put his penis inside her anus, but was unable to get it in. He admitted that he put his penis inside her vagina and had sex with her until he ejaculated on the floor. He maintained that after assaulting her and forcing her into the port-a-john, she allowed him to have sex with him.

Mr. Wilson was charged with the following:
